G. Commissioner's Corner

Commissioner Smothers has taken a GIS course and is now an official gemologist,

Commissioner Dodd's wife is retiring and they have extensive traveling planned and he will be resigning from the FWAC.

Commissioner Streed is still pursuing bow fishing in Lake Morena for carp with the County Department of Parks and Recreation and will bring this issue to a future FWAC agenda .

Commissioner Conrad has plans for a very effective barn owl house he will email to all commissioners. The Safari club is also sponsoring tuition to the American Wildlife Leadership School (AWLS) in Jackson Hole, Wyoming and has asked all commissioners to send candidates to him for consideration (teachers, church group leaders, scout leaders, etc.).

Commissioner Turigliatto announced that The National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTF) has a scholarship fund available for qualified candidates, applications are available at www.sandiegoturkies.org. Jakes (NWTF Junior group) will be having an event at Lake Wohlford on June 29. Youth entry is free and will include bb gun, 22 caliber, black powder, and shotgun shooting.
